INTERNATIONAL DAY 2021

Next Friday, Children are invited to wear their own clothes, traditional dress or costume which reflects and celebrates their heritage and traditions. After school, parents and carers are encouraged to bring a dish from a country of their heritage to share with others. Please join us in the hall from 3.30 - 4.30pm.

TONIGHT BINGO IS BACK!

Join us in the school hall from 7.00pm for a night of food, drinks, games and prizes.

THANK YOU

We enjoyed a wonderful service this morning which included readings poems and prayers from the Faith Group. The choir's rendition of Louis Armstrong's 'A Wonderful World' was exquisite and the whole school sung joyfully and beautifully. This year's striking harvest baskets were filled to the brim with donations for the food parcel scheme. Thank you so much to everyone who donated so generously. Father Richard and the team at Christ Church were thrilled with the donations which will help many who are in need in the local area.

INTERNATIONAL DAY 2021

Friday 15th October

Christ Church SW9 will celebrate our global community with our International Day 2021, a day of learning, events and sharing including a 'bring and share' for the school community.

Traditional dress, colours or costume

Children are invited to wear their own clothes, traditional dress or costume which reflects and celebrates their heritage and traditions.

3.30 - 4.30pm 'Bring and Share'

At the bring and share, parents and carers are encouraged to bring a dish from a country of their heritage to share with others. Please join us in the hall from 3.30 - 4.30pm.

We ask parents and carers to label the dish with its name, main ingredients and country of origin.

Please keep to our no nuts policy.
