OUR VALUE THIS TERM
IS FAITHFULNESS

Some random acts of kindness and positive messages from our pupils and staff at Christ Church this week:

To Miss Brathwaite-Grace for being the best teacher ever from Evie.

To Noel (Y1) - you found my lost key card and returned it to me. Thank you from Ms Aidoo.

To Nathan (Y3) - thank you for helping me with my spelling from Aida.

To Tiago - thank you for helping me with my phonics from Duaa.

To Kizeah and Calliope - Miss Taylor noticed you working so well together, taking turns and sharing resources in maths.

To Miss Heemskerk for teaching us spectacular lessons from Rhyann.

What have we been learning this week?

In Y4 (Willow Class) have been learning cricket skills.

Children in Oak Class (Reception) have been busy helping the Little Red Hen to mill and grind some wheat to make flour.

As an introduction to orienteering, children in Elm Class (Y5) have been using problem solving skills to get themselves and their equipment from A to B without touching the floor.

This is 25 minutes of fun for toddlers and parents with songs, puppets and crafts fuelled by croissants.

We'll be running it on the first Sunday of each month at 9.45am, and the next one is next Sunday March 5th

You can pre-book (free of charge) at bubblechurch.org

We also welcome new volunteers from adults and older children, so if you're interested, please drop Father Steve a line at curate@christchurchbr.org.uk

OTHER NEWS

In this week's Praise Assembly Father Steve talked to the children about Ash Wednesday and Lent, and heard about all the tasty pancakes the pupils had enjoyed!

Congratulations to Father Hugo on the birth of his second child, a girl named Arantxa.

Unfortunately, we are currently without an administrator so apologies for any delays in answering queries. For any pastoral matters, including arranging baptisms, weddings and funerals please contact Fr Hugo vicar@christchurchbr.org.uk

Sadly we can't process any room bookings currently, but will let you know when that changes

We wish everyone at the school a happy weekend and hold you all in our prayers
