Countdown to Christmas....we need help with our Christmas Fair this year. Please volunteer if you can.

Volunteers needed on Friday
1 December @ 9.05am

Please come and help us
decorate the forest area
ready for Christmas.

Think 'Kew Gardens meets
Blackpool illuminations'

IF YOU HAVE ANY OLD
DECORATIONS OR SPARKLY
LIGHTS THAT YOU NO LONGER
USE, PLEASE BRING WITH

We need some Elf-power to help make the Christmas Fair special!
Here are all the different ways you can help:

- Raffle Tickets
We will be sending out raffle tickets next week. Please buy some and sell to friends and family. Fab prizes to be won!
- Donations
We need donations of lovely things for our raffle and tombola. Chocs, beauty products, wine, beer, non-alcoholic drinks!
- Bake a cake
Calling all bakers – dig out your Christmas apron and bake up a treat. (hand into the office on Friday 8th)
- Nearly new stall
Please donate secondhand toys and books (good, clean condition) by Thursday 7 Dec.
- Volunteer to help on the day
Can you help by running a stall? Setting up and tidying away on the day? We will send a link to the Christmas Fete What's App group shortly – please sign up!

Our school council would like to invite you to...

NON-UNIFORM DAY
Friday 1st December

Please bring a donation of a chocolate bar or two for the Chocolate Tombola at the Christmas Fair

Next Friday is non-uniform day!

All children have been invited by our School Council to come to school in their own clothes for the day. The only catch... please bring a donation for the chocolate tombola at the Christmas Fair - a bar of chocolate, a box of chocolates, a bag of chocolates or anything chocolatey will do.

THANK YOU
